There are 3 times of the year when there is a change in hours of alcohol service:

New Years Eve

The beginning of daylight savings in Spring

The return to standard time in fall

New Year's Eve: Effects Friday night sales...

(December 31st, 2010) falls on a Friday this year. Please note Section 11-402 of the Maryland Alcoholic Beverage Laws authorizing the Board of License Commissioners to allow "on-sale" licensed premises to remain open and sell alcoholic beverages until 2:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 1st. All alcoholic beverages must be consumed and off the tables/bar by 2:30 a.m.

Daylight Savings: Effects Saturday night sales...

Sunday early morning, March 13, 2011 at 2:00 a.m. set clocks forward one hour.

There will be a 1/2 hour of lost service; All alcohol beverages must be removed from the tables/bar by 2 am. Stop service early to allow glasses to be collected and cleared off tables by 2:00 a.m. (Loss of 1/2 hr. grace period)

Daylight Savings (Return to Standard Time): Effects Saturday night sales...

Sunday early morning, November 6, 2010 at 2:00 a.m. set clocks back one hour.

There will be one extra hour of service.

No other holidays constitute a change in service hours.
